Salut Real

The G7 group is still looking for a few more experienced news photographers to work during the Summit. I have tried a few people I know in Montreal..but they are already booked (same weekend as the Grand Prix!)

I thought of Jacques Boisenault (?) who used to work for CP. I know he retired, and I don't know if he is still working at all. Do you know him or how to get hold of him?

Or.. do you know any other good news photographers who might be interested?

If so, please let them know they can communicate directly with Patricia or Dave, supplying with their email, a link to their website.

Thanks for any help you can give us with this
